"The Toymakers."

No more entertaining play has been offered this season than "The Toymakers," coming here to the opera house next Thursday evening, presented by "The Jollities," under the management of Charles F. Atkinson and James Thacher. "The Toymakers" is by Charles Felton Pidgin, who wrote "Quincy Adams Sawyer," universally pronounced the greatest New England play ever written, and in this musical, lyrical, romantic play of an old English village, author Pidgin has brought all his powers of vivid characterization, his capacity to design comical situations and costumes, his potency to weave a theme of constant interest and certain, positive effect, and, added to all this, he has contributed a new talent—the writing of appropriate lyrics. He has nearly two dozen of them in "The Toymakers." Special, original music has been composed for them by those two well-known Bostonians, Charles D. Blake and John A. Bennett, and it is said to be of the most catchy character, bright, swift and melodious. One can well imagine the possibilities for characterization and for song, dance and merriment with such a locale as an old toy-shop in an old English village. Here is where, author Pidgin has set the narrative of his latest play, and all of the essentials of individuals, speech, action, costume and so on, will be found in abundance and in most delightful, fascinating harmony. Tickets now selling.

and way below cost. A few well-known makes are "having their run" and nothing else goes. In other words, many brands that were "all the go" a few years since are now "out of the race," yet are as good in quality as the popular makes. We have many of the present leading brands of Cut Plug, also Plug, either smoking or chewing, which we will sell at cost. Our best trades are, however, on Tobaccos which were popular a few years since—those a little out of style—which we will sell far below wholesale cost. We enumerate many such, as follows: Toddy, Lorillard's, Mahogany 5, Every Day Smoke, Something Good, Yarrowburgh, Cable Roll, Farmer's Solace, Thrasher, Biggest and Best, West, Stone & Co.'s Smoke, Honey Chunk, Independent Navy, Heavy Hitter, Lucky Strike, Old Kentucky, Nabob, Tomahawk, Mayo's Double Thick, four ounces, Old Traveler, New Smoke, Big W, Rising Sun, Monogram, Golden Seal and Planter. Buy these out of style brands and save bunches of money. Try it and then buy a box way below cost. Come quick, before best trades are closed.
